

WELCOME TO THE 2022 UMBRA CATALOG.

Despite the hurdles caused by the pandemic over the past two years, I am proud that Umbra has been able to bring so many new original products to our consumers. I am excited to share all of our new designs with you in our 2022 Umbra catalog.

There are some commitments that Umbra will always deliver on, such as designing high quality, innovative and versatile products that look terrific and offer great value. The other is sustainability.

Umbra believes that the biggest threat to humanity and the planet is the damage we are doing to our environment. We realize that making consumer products that require energy and materials to produce, package and deliver contributes to the problem. Our commitment is to lessen this damage by taking steps to reduce usage of materials harmful to the environment and to deliver quality products that last. We have initiated our Design for the Planet™ pledge for our catalog of products and company as a whole.

Our approach to sustainability starts with our designs. By ensuring that our products are of a quality and that our designs are timeless, we can ensure they do not end up in landfill. We're also reducing unnecessary packaging, using more biodegradable & recycled materials, as well as reducing harmful finishes such as electroplating in our curtain rods.

The good news is that increased availability of environmentally friendly materials has allowed us to reduce our carbon footprint without compromising the products you've loved for over 42 years.

We're honored that you have welcomed our products into your home. Thank you for your continued interest in Umbra.

All the best to you in 2022!

Umbra is committed to continuously reducing its impact on the planet by making high-quality products that are designed to last. To accomplish this, we are taking significant steps in 2022 to reduce waste, improve sourcing, and cleanup manufacturing.

www.umbra.com/pages/sustainability

More than half of our plastic products will be made from 80% recycled material.

100% of the wood used in our products will be harvested from renewable sources.

Our new eco friendly finishes for curtain rods produce 85% less solid and water waste.

We are eliminating Styrofoam and plastics from more than 80% of packaging.
